ALMA MATER

I

We sing to thee, our Alma Mater,
As our hearts we give to thee,
Loyalty we pledge forever—
Mississippi S. T. C.

Refrain

Spacious skies and land of sunshine
Ever to our warm hearts call
And our hearts lift ever to thee
As we praise thy hallowed hall.

II

O, give us courage to go forward
To our tasks and let us be
Men of trust for thy name's keeping,
Mississippi S. T. C.

Refrain

III

Now we pledge thee by our honor,
Steadfast love and loyalty;
Working ever for thy glory—

Our President

With genuine admiration we pay tribute to our president, Dr. J. G. George, who has, through his successful development of our school, proved himself an able executive and businessman, and, what is more, has demonstrated that a college president may be "one of us" and still retain the respect of every student.

Our Dean

To Dr. R. G. Lowery, dean of our school and friend of every student, we pay sincere tribute. We respect him and we love him as a friend who shows his genuiness through deeds rather than words. Dr. Lowery fills a place that is all his own in every heart.

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN---1950

My book, HOW TO GET YOUR MAN—AND KEEP HIM, was a best seller almost immediately, and lecture invitations began to pour in. I thought of my Alma Mater Mississippi Southern, and what a hard time the poor girls had. I instructed my manager to write for an engagement. The surprising reply came: "We need your series of lectures, but for the boys, not the girls. We have about five times as many boys as girls, and the boys get awfully discouraged." This made me stop and think. Evidently things had been happening at Mississippi Southern in a big way.

I lost no time in finding out. 2011

When I arrived at the enormous neon sign "Mississippi Southern," I boldly entered the campus. I just as boldly started looking for the administration building. In five minutes I realized that I was lost. Never had I seen such an imposing array of buildings. Very timidly I asked a student how to go. "Really," I remarked, "I didn't know that Mississippi Southern had grown so. I was graduated from here in 1940." "What!" he said in a shocked tone. "Mississippi Southern gets national publicity. We won the Rose Bowl game this year." "I'm sorry," I excused myself humbly, "but I've been traveling all over the world the past few years, and I haven't kept up with everything."

The student graciously offered to take me on a tour of the campus. I stared with open mouth, and could only shake my head and murmur weakly, "Five dormitories for girls and nine for men, besides sorority and fraternity houses."

When I was just about to tell my friend that I was getting cross-eyed, he suggested that we go to chapel. We sat in the back of the huge auditorium packed with students. I heard a voice repeat, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." I looked more closely. I had not made a mistake. It was Dr. George. My new friend whispered in my ear, "He has had offers from every large school in the country, but he prefers to stay at Mississippi Southern."

Looking around I saw familiar faces — Dr. Walker and Dr. Weathersby, Dr. Peterson, and the rest — but I saw no women teachers that I recognized. I asked about it after chapel. Dr. Lowrey informed me that only a year or two after I graduated all of the women teachers got married. The shocks of the day had been too much. I quietly fainted.

—FRANCES WALTHALL.

===== DIARY =====

Sept. 19—School opened today. After a long lazy summer I was really glad to get back to work. But best of all was seeing all the old students and getting acquainted with the new ones. The fact that some of the new ones are good looking doesn't make any difference—much.

Sept. 29—First football game of the season with Troy Teachers. There were so many gorgeous new fall outfits scattered about that I had a hard time looking at the ball game. Incidentally, we won.

Oct. 1—I can hardly believe it's true. When the boys move into the new dormitory, Forrest County Hall is going to be a Senior Dormitory. Hurrah!

Oct. 10—They say it will be only a few days until we move.

Oct. 15—Will move next week.

Oct. 22—Slight delay. Will move next week.

Oct. 29—Another delay. Will move next week.

Nov. 1—We moved today! Such a job. When everything was moved I just sat down on top of everything. I didn't feel that I could move for a week. The boys moved day before yesterday. They have a queer name for the dormitory—"The Rock."

Nov. 4—We just had time to straighten everything up a little for Homecoming today. Wish Homecoming came more often. Everybody was here.

Nov. 23—Thanksgiving holidays.

Dec. 15—Began worrying about what to give people for Christmas. If I only knew what I was going to get, it would simplify the matter enormously.

Dec. 18, 19—Examinations. Deep groan expresses my feelings.

Dec. 19—Christmas holidays begin—Rest at last.

Jan. 2—Return to school very reluctantly.

Feb. 2—Legislature voted to change the name from State Teachers College to Mississippi Southern College. We felt that it called for some kind of celebration, and promptly voted a half-holiday. Our rejoicing was brought to a rude ending when Mississippi Hall caught on fire. Trunks and clothes were rushed from the building. Girls sitting around with their belongings looked like refugees after a Mississippi River Flood. What a day!

Feb. 29—It didn't mean a thing at Mississippi Southern, but it only comes every four years, so I put it down.

March 19—Don't exams come around in a hurry! But I can stand it because tomorrow, - - - - -

March 20, after exams are over I can leave for spring holidays. And I have a brand new hat to show off in the Easter parade.

March 25—Back to school and "Gone With the Wind." I'm going to see it if I have to miss all my meals.

April 3—Legislators visited Mississippi Southern. We were all on our very best behavior.

All of May—Such beautiful weather that I couldn't study or work. Bad case of spring fever.

May 31—Good bye to Mississippi Southern.

Remark—I notice on reading through my diary that about half of the memorable dates are the beginning of holidays. But after all, don't we go to school so that we can have holidays?

SONNET

More wise than he who once, in days of old
In far, strange lands where crouching dragons lay,
Sought mid the perils great of night and day,
So eagerly, the fabled fleece of gold,
In perfect safety in our peacefold fold,
Seek we a nobler, Greater treasure, yea,
Seek we the wealth whose worth none may gainsay,
Increasing knowledge, love, and spirits bold.

Pray that we cheapen not our vision bright,
Pray that we may to such a quest be true,
Increase our zeal for every task assigned,
And give us faith to battle for the right,
Nor let us shirk whate'er we find to do,
So may we conquer and our guerdon find.

—NEKA CAMMON—1928.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN FEDERATION

The purposes of the Student Christian Federation are to promote Christian leadership, co-ordinate and unify the religious development of the college community, to relate the students to the churches of their choice, to provide for the individual channels for worship and self-expression, and to discover the practical resources of religion for the solution of campus and personal problems.

The work of the Christian Federation is done largely through a group of elected officers, representatives of the various denominations, and the following committees: Vespers, Music, Publicity, Charm School, Recreation, Courtesy, Junior-Senior Forum, Deputations, Off Campus Club for Girls, Ministerial League.

The Christian Federation is financed by the profits made from Wimpy's, the campus store.

The Debate Club during the year has sent teams to compete in the Millsaps Invitational Tournament, the Mid-South Tournament at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, and Louisiana-Texas Tournament at Natchitoches, Louisiana. The club was host for the tournament of Mississippi Intercollegiate Forensic Association in Hattiesburg.

Representatives reach final or semi-final rounds except at Louisiana-Texas Tournament. The varsity women's teams consisting of Evelyn Gandy, Hazeline Wood, Dulcie Davidge, and Martha Houston, won first place in the Mississippi Forensic Tournament with seven wins and one loss—the best record attained by any college team in the tournament. R. L. "Bobby" Bullard was the winner in the Extemporaneous Speaking contest of the same tournament, 1940. Mary White took first place in the state women's oratory, 1939, and second place in 1940. Arthell Kelly took third place in men's orations, 1940.

TENNIS CLUB

ORGANIZED 1940

LEON BROCK - - - - - President

LEONARD LOWREY - - - - - Secretary-Treasurer

MEMBERS

FIRST ROW—Bennie Simmons, Otto Montgomery, Jr., James Thoms, Cloyd Van Hook, Leon Brock, H. D. Pickens (sponsor).

SECOND ROW—G. O. Parker, Max Huff, Warner Gill, Leonard Lowrey, James Sennett.

OTHER MEMBERS—Sidney Parker, Stewart Wilson.

The Tennis Club made its first appearance at Mississippi Southern near the close of the winter quarter in 1940.

It includes not only members of the varsity tennis club but also all other interested players.

The club held its first tournament in the early weeks of the spring quarter and the four semi-finalists represented Southern at the Mississippi inter-collegiate tourney in Jackson.

Aims of the club are to promote interest in tennis on the campus and to attempt to improve facilities for the playing of the game.

The club is sponsored by Dr. H. D. Pickens, coach of the tennis team.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Under the direction of Coach Thad "Pie" Vann an intramural sports program for boys was formed for the first time at this institution during the winter quarter.

The first championship under the new program went to the sophomore class basketball team which defeated the seniors 21-10 in the final game of the tournament. In the first round the sophomores nosed out the juniors 22-20 while the seniors were downing the freshmen, 27-24.

Members of the title-winning team were Walter Stubbs, Benny Frank Simmons, John Carter, Elmer Fillingim, Leonard Lowrey, J. B. Goldman, Fred McDaniels, Roland Loper and Joe Potter.

An intramural boxing tournament was also held during the winter quarter with the freshmen and sophomores winning three titles each to become co-champions.

Results follow:

115 pound class—Farve McIntosh, senior, won by forfeit.

125 pound class—Buford Brannon, sophomore, defeated J. J. Pulliam, senior

145 pound class—Billy Applewhite, freshman, whipped Woodrow Hood, junior.

175 pound class—Clifton "Fats" Moore, senior, outpointed Armand Crity, junior.

Heavyweight class—Joe Stringfellow, sophomore, won a split decision over Joe McMahan, sophomore.

Wrestling and ping pong were also included in the winter quarter program.

Tournaments were scheduled in golf, handball, track, tennis, swimming, diving, and softball during the spring quarter.

The intramural program got off to an encouraging start in 1940 and should prove even more popular in the years to come after it becomes better organized and the boys in school realize its importance.

FOOTBALL

Taking a squad made up almost entirely of junior college transfers after 13 lettermen from the great team of 1938 had been lost through graduation, Coach Reed Green and his capable assistant, Thad "Pie" Vann, turned out a football team in 1939 which almost gave State Teachers college an S. I. A. A. championship.

The team ended its season with a record of four victories, two defeats and three ties. Only the University of Mississippi, one of the finest teams in the South, and Louisiana Normal, champion of the S. I. A. A., could defeat the Teachers and they turned the trick only after terrific struggles against a team that couldn't have played more inspired ball even had it known it was the last Mississippi State Teachers college football eleven.

The Yellowjackets opened their season with a 13-6 conquest of Troy, Ala., State Teachers college here Sept. 29. The stubborn Trop aggregation held off all Jacket thrusts during the first quarter but late in the period a 52-yard drive was begun which ended on the third play of the second quarter with the Teachers' first touchdown of the year, Clower Johnson going over from the two-yard line.

Try for point failed so the score was tied a few minutes later when a long Trojan pass put the ball on the State Teachers four-yard line and a thrust at the line took it over. The Yellowjackets surged back in the third quarter to score the winning touchdown on a pass from Leo Alessandri to Frenchie Bolis good for 32 yards. Joe Stringfellow kicked the extra point, his first in a string that was destined to reach nine before he missed his last effort of the year.

On Oct. 7 the Teachers journied to Huntsville, Texas, to battle a great Sam Houston college team to a 7-7 tie. For three periods the teams were scoreless. Then in the fourth quarter a Yellowjacket drive carried deep into Sam

Houston territory but faltered before reaching pay-dirt.

The Texans took over but fumbled on their own 15 and Alessandri went over from the five. Sam Houston received and marched to the Teachers' five-yard stripe before a gallant goal-line stand stopped the surge. Alessandri attempted to punt out of danger but the kick was blocked and recovered by Sam Houston behind the goal line for a touchdown. A successful conversion tied the count.

One week later the Yellowjackets got back into their old habit of playing scoreless ties with the Millsaps—this one taking place at the state fair in Jackson. It was the fourth 0-0 game played between the two schools in their last five meetings.

Each team made one serious scoring treat—the Majors getting to the Jacket three-yard line in the first quarter and the Teachers reaching Millsaps' seven in the final period. Statistics favored State Teachers college.

Against Delta State Teachers college at Cleveland on Oct. 21 the Yellowjackets really got their offense functioning properly for the first time and the result was a 21-0 rout that was even more decisive than the score indicates. The Jackets marched up and down the field time after time as they rolled up 19 first downs to Delta's one.

All scoring came in the second half as Stringfellow passed 25 yards to Bolis for the first touchdown and then scored the second himself on a four-yard end-around. Armand Crity climaxed a 50-yard drive with a short plunge for the third.

The Teachers returned to Hattiesburg on Nov. 4 for the annual Homecoming day tilt, defeating Louisiana college 7-0 in a hard-fought game. The lone score of the contest came in the second period, Crity driving over from the one-yard line to end a 34-yard drive.

Louisiana college was badly outplayed in the first half but came back to make a game out of it in the last two quarters.

Before the largest crowd ever to see a game at Faulkner field, the Yellowjackets fell before the University of Mississippi 27-7 on Armistice Day. The Jackets put up a brilliant battle and held the Rebels on even terms in every quarter except the third.

Ole Miss tallied mid-way through the second quarter but the little college boys came back with the ensuing kick-off to put on a 63-yard touchdown drive that everybody who saw the contest will always remember. Joe Ovca went over from the 10-yard line after taking a flat pass from Alessandri. Taking advantage of breaks and combining them with their own power the Rebels untied the score with three quick touchdowns in a disastrous third quarter.

Undaunted by this first defeat, the Jackets invaded Lafayette, La., on Nov. 18 and hung up their fourth S. I. A. A. victory in as many starts by defeating Southwestern Louisiana Institute, 9-7. Southwestern scored first when Adkins ran "Mule" Massengale's first punt of the game back 70 yards for a touchdown but the Teachers quickly knotted the count as Emmett Sims raced 42 yards to pay-dirt on an end-around play late in the first quarter.

In the fourth period S. L. I. stopped a Jacket drive on its three-yard line but Sims crashed through to block a punt for a safety and the two-point victory margin.

State Teachers college, unbeaten in four conference starts, and Louisiana Normal, undefeated in five, met here with the S. I. A. A. championship at stake on Nov. 23 and the Demons carried the title to Louisiana with a 7-0 victory.

The hard-fighting Jackets stopped every Demon thrust far short of a score until, with five minutes to play, a substitute Normal half-back, Willie Black, got loose on a reverse around his own left end and ran 73 yards for a touchdown. Outside of that one thrust neither team got within the other's 20-yard line.

The last game ever to be played by a team from Mississippi State Teachers college was one of the best ever seen at Faulkner field, the Yellowjackets battling a heavier St. Mary's University eleven from San Antonio, Texas, to a 13-13 tie.

A 51-yard drive climaxed by a 13-yard pass from Massengale to Stringfellow gave the Teachers first blood early in the second quarter and J. W. Jones recovered a fumble on the St. Mary's 17 to set up another tally a few minutes later. It was after this score that Stringfellow missed his first extra point effort of the year. It proved a costly one as the versatile Rattiers came back to wear the lighter Teachers down in the second half and tally twice to tie the score.

Ten members of the State Teachers college team of 1939 will not be members of the Mississippi Southern eleven of 1940. Being lost by graduation are:

Emmett Sims, Glover Freeman and Troy Hendricks, ends; A. D. "Sandy" Morgan and Thomas "Scoop" Howard, tackles; F. J. Dickey, guard; Theo Jones, center; A. C. "Mule" Massengale, John Rich, and Leon Brock, backs.

Morgan and Massengale each received honorable mention on the Associated Press Little All-American team and second team positions on the All-S. I. A. A. team chosen by the same agency.

===== BASKETBALL =====

The State Teachers College-Mississippi Southern basketball team (the school changed names during the middle of the season) chalked up four victories against six defeats in 1940.

With only one veteran returning from the 1939 team Coach Reed Green had his "work cut out for him" but came through remarkably well with a team made up entirely of sophomores and juniors.

The Yellowjackets opened their season on Jan. 12 at Mobile against Spring Hill, losing a 41-40 decision in a nip-and-tuck game that went one extra period. The Teachers had only a week and a half practice behind them at that time.

On the following night the Badgers came to Hattiesburg and fell before the Jackets 35-23. Art Van Tone, sophomore guard, paced the Teachers on both offense and defense.

The following week-end Southeastern college of Hammond, La., came here for a two-game series and came out on the short end of the score both nights. Friday night the Jackets pulled away in the last four minutes of play to take a 47-39 decision after the lead had changed hands 17 times during the course of the contest.

Halting of a late Southeastern rally gave the Teachers a 41-40 victory the following night. Twice the Yellowjackets built up big leads only to blow them. Joe Ovca was the big noise in the Teachers' attack, tallying 15 points.

One week later the Yellowjackets invaded Hammond and split a return series with the Lions, winning the first game 51-43 in one extra period but blowing a good lead in the second to drop a 43-34 decision.

On Friday, February 2, the Mississippi legislature passed a bill changing the name of this institution from Mississippi State Teachers college to Mississippi Southern college.

That afternoon Mississippi Hall caught on fire and that night the school's basketball team ran up against one of the best fives in the nation, Delta State Teachers college from Cleveland, and was routed 42-24. Just to show it was no fluke the Deltans rolled over the Yellowjackets 48-27 the next night.

The Mississippi Southern team didn't play another game until Feb. 23 when it invaded Cleveland for two more tiffs with this Delta team which was destined to go to the semi-finals in the National Intercollegiate tournament.

The hard-fighting Southerners gave Delta the scare of its life in the first game by leading throughout the first half but superior reserve strength told and the Greenies finally won out 44-33. Although they didn't lead at the end of the first half the next night, the Yellowjackets again put up a close battle and it was only in the last period that Delta ran off with a 56-36 victory.

Coach Reed Green isn't losing a man off his squad by graduation this year and Southern should have a great club in 1941.

Members of this year's squad were: Howard McCarley, Ira "Pete" McDowell, J. W. Jones, Art Van Tone, Joe Ovca, Vardaman Lovette, Joe Stringfellow, C. L. Dews, Aaron Prestige and Ed Dever.
